

HAPPY HALLOWEEN!

FROM MADISON, WISCONSIN

HAVING A GOOD TIME SINCE '79

Probably the world's largest Halloween party, Madison's State Street hosts tens of thousands of costumed collegians each October. Envisioned by notable landscape architect John Nolen in 1908, State Street offers an unmatched downtown pedestrian experience linking between the University and the Capitol.

Just another reason to come on over for LABASH 2014 at the University of Wisconsin!
